"A people... who are possessed of the spirit of commerce, who see and who will pursue their advantages may achieve almost anything." (letter to Benjamin Harrison, October 10, 1784)

George Washington was the Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army and the first President of the United States of America.