"I had always hoped that this land might become a safe and agreeable asylum to the virtuous and persecuted part of mankind, to whatever nation they might belong." (letter to Francis Van der Kamp, May 28, 1788)

George Washington was the Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army and the first President of the United States of America.