April 12, 2002

Rep. Akin to Hold Press Conference on the Need to Make Tax Relief Permanent
House is expected to vote on measure next week

St. Louis, Mo.- Congressman Todd Akin will hold a press conference in front of the main St. Louis Post Office, 1720 Market Street, on Monday April 15, at 10:30 a.m. Akin will discuss the benefits of the tax cut passed by Congress and the need to make it permanent. The House is expected to vote on such a measure next week. Akin has co-sponsored a measure to make the tax cut permanent.

What:
Congressman Akin will hold a press conference on the benefits of the tax cut passed by Congress and the need to make it permanent

Where:
In front of Main St. Louis Post Office, 1720 Market Street

When:
10:30 a.m., April 15