

Mission

The Congressional Scouting Caucus was formed to monitor legislation affecting scouting interests and to share these interests with the House of Representatives. In recognition that scouting helps to instill values, strengthen character, and enhance mental and physical fitness in America's young people, the caucus seeks to inform members of the activities and accomplishments of the Boy Scouts of America and other scouting organizations.

Members

Rep. Todd Akin , co-chairman

Rep. Jim Cooper , co-chairman

□

Resources

Boy Scouts of America

Girl Scouts of America

World Scout Organization

