WASHINGTON, DC - Congressman Todd Akin (R-MO) today launched a newly redesigned and updated website, available at www.house.gov/akin .

Press Secretary Steve Taylor commented:

“Our goal was to update the site to include social media options - such as RSS feeds and easy sharing, a more graphically interesting layout and easier access to the information Congressman Akin’s constituents are requesting.”

The new site features some of Congressman Akin’s favorite paintings by Missouri artist George Caleb Bingham. Visitors can find favorite quotes, current photographs, and Mr. Akin’s thoughts on hot button issues. An updated constituent service center and a link to Mr. Akin’s entire voting record for the 111th Congress are also available through the new site.

Said Taylor,

“Mr. Akin invites website users to take our Featured Poll and email comments on the new website. Please also find our office on Facebook, follow us on Twitter and check out our YouTube channel.”
