

September 18, 2007

Congressman Akin Honors Adoptive Parents

Washington- Congressman Todd Akin (R-MO) is pleased to nominate the Tague Family to be recognized at the annual Angels in Adoption ceremony in Washington, DC.

Dr. and Mrs. Tague of Ballwin have six adopted children ranging in age from 16 years to 14 months.

"All children have the need for a loving and safe home and the Tague's have opened their doors wide for these children," said Akin. "I'm proud to recognize such dedicated parents committed to providing a stable and faith-filled home to prosper."

The Angels in Adoption program gives Members of Congress the opportunity to commend the good work of their constituents who have made a difference in the lives of children through adoption or foster care advocacy. The annual event includes a gala to be held in Washington, D.C. on October 4 at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center.