

June 18, 2002

Statement by Congressman Todd Akin on the Passing of Jack Buck

Washington, D.C.- “As a father, decorated war veteran and a leading citizen, Jack Buck led a life that touched people in many ways. He was a true civic leader whose sense of humor and dedication to St. Louis has made him an irreplaceable part of our community. His love of baseball and of life was reflected in his brilliant career. His voice represented not only the St. Louis Cardinals but also the best of St. Louis.”