

Congressman agrees jobs are top priority

St. Louis, MO – Congressman Todd Akin’s office (R-MO), released the following statement regarding planned protests at his office which will be staged today by “Jobs with Justice” at the UFCW 655 Union Hall.

“Congressman Todd Akin (R-MO), who regularly meets with many constituents, groups and business owners agrees that jobs and the security of American families should be the number one priority in Washington, which is why he has worked assiduously to reduce wasteful government spending and eliminate needless and burdensome regulations on job creators.

“Further, Congressman Akin understands that the best way for the Government to help create jobs is to get out of the way of small business, entrepreneurs and industry who are in the business of creating them.”

##