

Washington, DC -- Legislation sponsored by Congressman Todd Akin to honor three young men from the Second District of Missouri who died in combat operations in Iraq has been signed into law by the President. Tuesday, the President signed legislation that will name three Post Office buildings in honor of Specialist Peter J. Navarro, Lance Corporal Matthew P. Pathenos and Lance Corporal Drew W. Weaver.

Congressman Akin statement:

“These three young men gave their lives in service to this country. It is fitting that the community recognize their sacrifice and have these post office buildings named in their honor.”

The following facilities of the United States Post Office will be named:

- The facility of the United States Postal Service located at 15455 Manchester Road in Ballwin, Missouri, as the "Specialist Peter J. Navarro Post Office Building".
- The facility of the United States Postal Service located at 1100 Town and Country Commons in Chesterfield, Missouri, as the "Lance Corporal Matthew P. Pathenos Post Office Building".
- The facility of the United States Postal Service located at 112 South 5th Street in Saint Charles, Missouri, as the "Lance Corporal Drew W. Weaver Post Office Building".
